

Journeyman Plumber/ Project Site Lead

$35/HR+

(APPRENTICES also required)

This is an excellent position for the candidate who is more advanced than a journeyman plumber and is not quite (or may not want to be) a fully applied foreman for work on small to midsize commercial plumbing jobs in the lower mainland. (NO REPETITIVE TOWER WORK)

What We Offer:

- Excellent Salary
- Company Vehicle & Gas Card
- Enhanced CIBP Benefit Plan
- Smart Phone
- Lower Mainland Work only
- Considerable job variety providing all around work experience- we don't do repetitive tower work that provides knowledge in only a few tasks.
- Excellent opportunity for the candidate who may want to learn to become a fully applied foreman.

This job would be ideal for the candidate that:

Is a plumbing journeyman and can take care of a relatively simple job involving things such as:

- Supervising 2 or 3 plumbers
- Understanding the plumbing scope of work, plumbing drawings, and plumbing specifications
- Having a basic understanding of associated heating and mechanical contracting work
- Being cost conscious (labour hours and material costs)
- Communicating to the office of any changes/ issues on the jobs.
- Communicating with office staff, clients, vendors, and inspectors

Has worked on projects such as:

- Warehouses
- Restaurants
- Tenant Improvements
- Schools

Is able and willing to do paperwork like:

- Material orders
- Timesheets
- Extra work orders
- RFI's
- Job closeout documentation/deficiencies

Is:

- Safety Conscious
- Detail oriented
- Inherently responsible
- Willing to learn
